“ It was with great sadness that I learned of Bee McCormack's death. She was, truly, an AMAZING woman who set the bar mighty high for those to come after her. I remember being named Woman of the Year one year, and Bee's poem about all the funny things that had happened in my life, was PRICELESS. I will never forget Bee and Anna Louise McCormack. Two of my favorites in life. Prayers for her sweet family.

“ Classy, welcoming, friendly, warm, worldly and so much more but at the end of the proverbial day, from the first day I met her, she acted and treated my family with a commoner’s touch and grace. Her siblings and her set a very high bar for all to follow. What a life! Love and hugs to her entire family. All our best, Sam and the rest of the California Roths.

“Bee was a smiling, lovely, giving lady. She, sister Anna Louise, & brother Bob Jr. (as with original “Bob” of candy cane fame) were huge factors in growth & culture of this region. Together and separately, unmeasurable good was done for Albany- Dougherty Co. It would take a book to list all their known good deeds! After “Bee’s” life spent doing her own good works for so many people and organizations, the days of being “remaining sibling” must have been somewhat lonesome. When Albany counts it’s blessings McCormack name is high on the list. Now “Bee” joins her family in what for them is likely not a ‘resting place’ but another dimension in which to do good!
