“ Mary Prewitt was one of the sweetest ladies I have ever met. I tried to see her every Sunday morning before Sunday School at our church. She was a special person to me because of her sweet spirit and smile. I got a hug and a mint every time I saw her. I know Bill will miss her and so will I, but her frail little body is now whole and she is out of pain in the arms of Jesus. I really loved her.

“ What a testament to a faithful Christian Mary was. She and Bill were the first to welcome us at Southside Baptist church in Decatur. Her relentlessness to always be faithful to worship her Lord and Savior even with her medical hindrances is a testament to her faith. I look forward to seeing her again in Heaven!! Love to Bill and his dedication to his wife!!!
