“ ALex, and family, I am so sorry to learn of the death of Mary Faye. It has been a while since I lived in Albany and saw you all at the church, but I remember her so well from the days at Flrst Baptist. I know this is a great loss to all of you and my thoughts and prayers are with you this holiday season in her absence and may the memories of good times bring you comfort and peace as well as the love of our dear Lord and Jesus. Hugs, love alisa anderson penrod

“ Mr. Alex
Mrs. Stewart was my 7th grade teacher and my Mom worked with her also. Mrs. Stewart will be missed by many. She was instrumental molding my life. When I met her I had just lost my father and she helped me through many bad days. Please know that our prayers are with you and Angie.

“ Dear Alex,

I met Mary Faye at Dougherty Middle School my very first year of teaching. (21 years ago). She was such an encouragement to me that year. She model how a great teacher should be. I learned a lot from her.

I also enjoyed seeing and talking with the both of you those Sunday afternoons we ended up at the same restaurant after church.

“ I am so sorry for your lose. I worked with Mary Faye for man years. She was a wonderful friend. In all of her sickness she always had a smile on face and always something to laugh about. The kids at DMS loved her and the teachers as well. She always had a funny story to tell. She loved her family with all her heart and thought she had struck gold when she had granchildren. She will be truly missed by all. I'll bet she's telling Jesus something funny right now. God bless you Alex and Angelia

“ Alex,

I just learned of Ms. Mary Faye's passing. I worked with her at Dougherty Middle School during my senior year of high school then later became her friend during all the "parties" we enjoyed having - between the Tupperware, and Longaberger Basket - we all had so much fun. She will surely be missed but our loss is Heaven's gain.

“Dear Alex, Angie, and A.J.,
Scenarios of scenes are running through my mind. Mary Faye playing her flute so beautifully accompanying me. Or our singing together at Christmas for SS classes, Wednesday nights or for church.
Let's not forget the Country and Western shows. Alex, you and Mary Faye made the shows. People went just to see the two of you. If Mary Faye, loved you, you knew it.
She was the greatest example of Godly love that I ever knew. I will always be grateful that this past summer and the summer before, Bo and I were able to spend time with her at your home. She was always so happy to see us and our visits were wonderful. I'm glad that we have the belief and trust that we will all be together again one day. I pray your believing this will sustain you through these days ahead. Anything anyone can say at these times pales in the presence of your grief, I know. All I can say, my precious friends, is to go ahead and cry and grieve. God will be there with you. Many people will be praying for your strength as we will. Mary Faye loved her family, especially you Angie. She was so proud of you and always told us how you were doing.
I Christian love, Vera Arlene

“ Mrs Stewart taught me 7th grade math. She went out of her way to help me. She was brilliant , funny, but when the time came she was serious. She wasn't just my teacher, she became my friend and later in life she bacame a loyal customer of mine as she purchased several automobiles from me. She will be missed by many. My prayers are with the family. Warmest Regards, Joel Downs

“ We will remember Mary Faye as a loving , truly Christian person who touched our lives in many ways. Her smile and loving ways made others smile and feel uplifted. We will always remember how dedicated she was to the Lord, her church, family and friends. She was very talented and loved sharing with others. We can almost hear her playing the flute right now. She was indeed a rare jewel who will be missed, but has now gone to her ultimate and final journey to be with Jesus in eternal bliss and joy.

“ Mary Faye and I were of kindred minds. We often thought and spoke sideways. Our tangs sometimes got tongueed. I stold tories of Rindercella, Beeping Sleauty, and the Chrigh Before Nistmas. Fary Maye stold tories of telling students go to the office because they wouldn't "shutton their birts." I hear the angels laughing now as you ickle their tears with your spoonerisms. We'll do it together again one day.

“ Dear Alex, Angie and A.J., Nan and I just learned this evening of the death of your sweet wife, mother and sister. I will always remember Mary Faye as one of the most dedicated people I have ever known. She had a wonderful sense of humor, a great love for Jesus, for you and for the church family. She did so much for so many people and was one of the best volunteers we ever had in the office and as she would say about herself, "I have mar-ve-lous sense of humor." I know you will miss her so much. We grieve with you. May God's grace and love sustain you. In His Spirit, Jim Ramsey
