“ Miss Mavis was a wonderful person. I remember her when I worked at the Family Mart in 1987. My favorite memory of her is when it was really really busy and she would jump on cash register and say over the store intercom " I am open at the side register and can take you if you have 10 items or less and NO weighable produce". She had no scales on her register to weigh produce so she made sure NO weighable produce was said with authority! Her voice across the intercom made so many of her coworkers smile. She will be missed.

“ Dear Anita & Debbie,
I was so sorry to hear of the loss of your sweet & beautiful Mom.
Please know that you are in my prayers as you adjust to her home-going. God bless.

“ I was Mrs. Mavis' neighbor in apartment #88. Mrs. Mavis and I became really good friends the day that she brought lil Annie home.
Annie brought so much life back into Mrs. Mavis. My lil dog Nikko and Annie became pals. Nikko always ran over to Mrs. Mavis' house to visit Annie and Mrs. Mavis' was always glad to see Nikko and I. I am going to miss standing on the porch and seeing Mrs.
Mavis and Annie outside. I really thought that it was so cute how Annie would lay down in the back of the window whenever she and Mrs. Mavis would go somewhere. I would often times watch out for there return so that I could keep an eye on Annie while Mrs. Mavis took her packages in the house. I really enjoyed talking to Mrs.
Mavis and I am going to really miss seeing her and Annie together.
My heart is truly sad, but I know that Mrs. Mavis is resting and she knows that her children are going to take really good care of Annie. I miss you already Mrs. Mavis!

Sincerely, Shannon, Timiko and Nikko at Apt.88

“ Our sympathies at this time. Although it has been years since we've seen Mavis, we remember her beautiful hair and kind manner. May God grant you all peace and comfort. Our father, Arnold Edwards, is now in a nursing home and we will tell him this sad news. We know he will be thinking of you all.
