“ An era has passed, but a new era has begun in Heaven. Mrs. Lewis has greeted her "Max". Buddy, Anne, Roy and Jim, I am so sorry for your loss. Your family was my family as well. Your daddy was a true "Southern Gentleman", stately, proud and hardworking. Always a kind word. Growing up next door to "The Lewis" was a wonderful experience. I had such fond memories of your family. I am sorry that I could not make it to the service. My prayers and love are with each of you. Mrs. Paschal, Glenn and Tommy, my prayers are with you as well. “ Our lives were enriched to have been next door neighbors of the Lewis family. I will always remember Mr. Max calling out to my sisters & me, "Howdy little ladies!"; as we rode our bikes down the dirt road to their house. He was a true gentleman with a great love for his family. We will miss him as much as we do Mrs. Annette. Our prayers to the family as you adjust to his home-going.
