“ I was so unprepared for the news of Mike's passing. Mike was my cousin. Mike was a warm and funny guy and I wish we could have visited more often. I will always remember my trips to Albany as a young child and the fun times the cousins, aunts and uncles had visiting each other's homes, going swimming at the creek and swinging on that rope, and crabbing in Panama City. Of course, I will always remember the lovely meal and table setting he prepared at his home for my visit a few years ago and introducing me to his favorite wine. It is with great sadness I extend my prayers and sympathy to Pat, Florence, Bob and Mary Carolyn. I hope all can find comfort in the many good and fun memories.

With Deepest Sympathy,

“ I remember when I met Mike, Pat, Florence, Bob, Mary Carolyn, and some many other great relatives on our trip through to Florida a couple years ago. Mike made me feel especially welcome to the family. Whether it was at the pizza restaurant or afterwards at Florence's house, he could bring a smile and chuckle to anyone's face. Thanks to the great Georgia crew for welcoming us.

Prayers and sympathies go out to all of you in these hard times. It never gets easier, but that is ok as the memories he left behind with each one of you are supposed to last forever. God was needing a good man to help Him and He definitely got one to fulfill the need.

“ I am devastated to hear of Mike's passing this morning. Mike started out as a customer, when I worked as a sales representative with Baker & Taylor Books, in 1979. When I left there in 1991, he continued to order children's books from my new company, Bound To Stay Bound Books, until his retirement. That relationship expanded to a good friendship. When I would come to Albany, he would cook dinner most times (so I'd have a good homecooked meal), or we would go out. I will certainly miss him greatly. We had many good late-night conversations about religion, politics, and various and sundry other topics. While we didn't always agree about everything, we respected each other's opinion and simply agreed to disagree. I will certainly miss those conversations with "Dugan" as well. RIP, my friend Mike Dugan.

“ Mike was such a special friend to my Mother, Gladys. He was always one of her favorite co-workers at the library. She cherishes the Irish Prayer he gave to her, in his fathers handwriting.

*Personally, I will remember that beautiful smile and his grand sense of humor. The Dowdell family sends heartfelt sympathy to the family.
