“ daddy, no matter what has happened in our past I hope that you always know that I loved you dearly. things should have never been the way they were..life is too short for hatred! I have nothing but good memories of when we used to be together as I was growing up. May you rest in peace now. I love you dearly and no one will ever replace you. Sorry I didn't make it to your visitation or your funeral. I asked a few people to call me and let me know when everything was but as you see they didn't. I know that you know I love you and that's all that matters..im saying my final goodbye to you and may god bless you and your soul.Love your first born daughter, Jodi Maloney and your 4 beautiful grandchildren

“ Well old man, I must say I never thought this would come so soon. I was so sure that we had more time together. But I am thankful for the time we had. Though it didnt always work out, I always tried to do right by you. I can only hope that you knew just how I felt about you. Me being the hard case that I am, Im sure I didnt tell you enough. But know matter what, you will always be my pops. I will miss you very much.

Mike will forever live on in our memories. Mike was there for Brandon as a coach and a father figure (baseball, etc.) and we will always cherish the moments we spent with him. When you needed a laugh Mike sure could give it to you! You all are in our thoughts and prayers. May God bless each of you in a special way. Always remember we're here if you need us.. “ Kathy,

Please know that my prayers are with you and your family at this time. I found this obituary when I was checking the website to see if Mom's was on it yet. She passed away this morning. May God hold you in his loving hands and lead you through this time of sadness.
