We were saddened to read, in the Sylvester Local, of the loss of your husband. Buddy and I have fond memories of times we spent with your parents when you and Anita were little girls. We hope your faith and testimony of eternal life bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time in your and your family's lives. Please know you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I don't know where to begin. I remember Michael when I was part of the youth group not too long ago at FUMC. I loved to be around him when we went on trips such as Red Bird and other mission trips. He was such a wonderful person to be around and a kindred spirit. I looked up to him as a father figure! He was one of my very close friends and definitely one of my favorite people. He always made it a point to give me a hug when he saw me! I remember him teaching me so much about carpentry during Habitat and mission trips. He was very skilled at what he did and wanted to teach others about his craft as well. My deepest sympathies go out to all of his family and friends. We have lost a truly beautiful person but we know that he is in a much better place watching over all of us. He is loved and missed dearly.

“ Dear Elaine, My deepest sympathy in the loss of your husband. I didn't know about his illness but I do know about losing a husband by an illness. That's why I wanted to let you know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this moment. I met him at the Lab Christmas Party in Leary about 3 years ago and he was very nice and friendly. May the Lord give you strength and comfort in the coming days ahead. Love, EVELYN

“ My deepest sympathy is with you at this time. Michael was such a blessing to my family at a time when we desperately needed his help and even though he was dealing with a monstrous disease at that time he bent over backwards to be a friend, mentor and confidant to my husband.
God bless you!

“ Mike O'Brien was the best friend I ever had. He was always the encourager, and never let me get too down on myself. I will miss saying goodbye to Mike in Albany, and will have to do that in my own way as responsibilities keep me here in San Antonio, Texas. However, I know I will miss his friendship the rest of my days and wish for the reunion that we will all share in Heaven. Space on this medium prevents me from fully expressing my feelings other than to say this. I knew I could always count on Mike, that he always wanted the best and highest for me, and he was a true friend. What better compliment can a man give another. I will always love you, my brother in Christ.
