

Mrs. Mildred Wigley Woodham

January 26, 1935 - May 18, 2020

Mildred Wigley Woodham, 85, of Albany, Georgia, perished from injuries due to a car accident, on Monday, May 18, 2020 at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital.

Friends are invited to join the family in a graveside service at 2:00 PM on Tuesday, May 26, 2020 at Crown Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Woodham was born January 26, 1935 in Anniston, Alabama, the daughter of Pearley Coleman and Lela Mae Johnson Wigley. She attended and graduated from Anniston High School. She majored in music at Jacksonville State University, Jacksonville, Alabama where she met and married her favorite running back, Albert "Al" Ray Woodham in June 24, 1956. She was a devoted wife and partner, lovingly supportive mother, avid follower of all football, Fox Network and Weather Channel enthusiast, crafty, creative, and stylish hobbyist, and attending member of First Baptist Church of Albany in Leesburg, a green thumb novice gardener, and participated in several entertaining lunch groups. She retired from Albany Technical College after 35 years. Mrs. Woodham was preceded by her husband, parents, and younger brother George Milton Wigley, Senior.

Mrs. Woodham is survived by her only child: Carlie Louise Woodham, her older brother, Pearly Coleman Wigley, Jr. (wife June), nephews: George Wigley, Charles Wigley (wife Kim), Tull Wigley (wife Linda), and Joel Woodham; nieces: Lola Benford (husband Bob), Kathy Wigley, and Miss Nolie Magnolia, her sassy West Highland Terrier, and her only “grandchild” a rambunctious Yellow Labrador named Tallulah Belle.

“Dear Carlie,

So sorry for your loss. I saw your mom in November. And as usual, I said to her, “you look like you came out of a hat box“!!!! She was just as beautiful as ever, not only in outward appearance, but inwardly as well. May God’s peace and love be with you.

“ Mildred and I became friends at Albany Technical College, where we both worked, and remained friends for over 35 years. I loved and respected her like a sister. My life won't ever be the same and I will miss her forever. Carlie, she loved you so much and was always so proud of you. I hope your wonderful memories will sustain you in the years to come. 🙏

“ I knew Mrs Woodham when “ Al “ coached & our son played football at Albany High! She never missed a game ! A beautiful, gracious lady , there to root for & encourage her husband & the boys, which at the time was a very good team ! Maybe her presence had something to do with that. ! Love to you both from the Blaylocks .

Mildred was a good friend of our mom. Jeane King worked at Albany Tech for a long time with her and they were close. She was very special friend of our family although we have lost touch. Our prayers are with you Carlie now and in the future. Kathy King James, kaye King Walden , and Karen King Kirkland.
