“ Dear Mommy, I miss you so much. I think of you everyday. I get really sad when I think about you, but then I smile because I think about what a great person you were and how you would light up the room. You had such a beautiful spirit. I was three when you left for Heaven. I'm fifteen now. Even though, I was so young I still have the faintest of memories of you, like the time when you were pregnant with Brennan and I wanted to go swimming so you filled the bathtub and let me swim in it. I admire you so much and love you more than words can explain. I admire your kindness, your heart, and the love you have for your family, Jordan, Brennan, and I, as well as your undying love for Christ. I love you so much and there isn't a day that goes by that I don't think about you. Give everyone hugs for me and let them know that I love them. I can't wait to see you again one day, Mommy. p.s. I still play soccer for you. Your Daughter, Melisa Stewart

“ Dear Mommy, I turn fifteen next month and all I can think about it how much I wish you were here to celebrate this milestone with me. I miss you more than you will ever know. You were such a bright and shining spirit and I thank God every day that He blessed me with you. While we didn't have very long together, know that I think of you every day and that you will never ever be forgotten. Your spirit will live on forever. I love you mommy and can't wait for the day I get to see you again.

Your Daughter,
Melisa

“ Our hearts go out to Misty's children, family and everyone who knew Misty. When I got the call that Misty was gone, I was stunned. I am just one year older and have three children. When I first met Misty, she was dating my ex-husband. I thought, "Oh great, not another female in my children's lives". My children would come home and say, "Misty did this for us" or "Misty does it this way". I did not want some other female coming into my children's lives and making me look inadequate to my children. After getting to know Misty, we became friends and she treated my children as though they were her own. My children were like Jordan's big brother and sister. We found out Misty's arrangements too late, but we still have her in our thoughts and you in our prayers. May God bless and keep you!

“ Though I never met Misty, I heard many kind things about her and what a devoted and loving mom she was from her son, Jordan's step mother, Heather Darby. I pray for Misty's loved ones, and hope that through faith and treasured memories there will come comfort.

“ I am a friend of someone you know from your church. even tho you do not know me my heart goes out to you. I pray that your sorrow tho deep will be healing. It occurred to me once in my own healing process that the depth of our grief is the height of our love. Let the passing of your precious woman bring you strength and grace in your living from this day forward. Such that your daughter grows in the light of her love as well as yours. May you know Gods love in your every breath.

Blessed Be

“ While I never knew you in this life Misty, I know that you are with God and Jesus now and you are resting. Your many friends and family and children will certainly miss you, but they are very happy to know that you have passed from this life in to another, greater joy, praising God and Jesus Christ Our Saviour. May God give your family that peace and strength they need to carry on until we meet again.

“Misty was born to our family less than a year after I. Although we are "second cousins", in my respects, we grew up as first cousins would; seated at the kids table for Thanksgiving celebrations, hunting Easter eggs, quite competitively, in our Aunt Kitty's front yard. And although our adult lives moved us to different places, the ties that bind us as family never break. Aunt Jean, Uncle Pete, Tripp and Misty gave selflessly and unfailingly to me in some of the darkest moments of my life and cheered me on with equal measure in sunnier times ~ a generosity with their love I could never repay. When I think of Misty, I think of generosity of spirit. Some of our best moments, those between 2 women with shared histories making our way into motherhood, happened around a fire pit on Toby's porch. Misty was guileless, sincere, honest and loving, and for our family story am blessed beyond measure.

Jordan, may your heavy, hero's heart be held in God's sovereign, comforting hands. You are in my thoughts and my prayers.

“ Misty: I will miss you dearly. I remember our closest times like Ivy when we had Thanksgiving and Christmas together. When you lived in Atlanta I couldn't wait for you to come to town for the Holidays. The Holidays are just about with us and I will remember you with a very heavy heart. Please give mama, Nana and Aunt Toby huge hugs and kisses for me.

“ Misty's death leaves an emptiness in a lot of lives, and I'm very sad as I think of the people she has left behind. My prayers are for comfort for all of her friends and family, especially for Sean and her children and her dad. She was an integral part of their everyday lives. I'm so so sorry!!! Please remember that we'll see her again someday. And remember that she'll always be alive in our hearts.

“ My heart is heavy as I sit, wanting to speak to her one more time. No more emails..no more texts.. no more pictures.. no more updates on Jordan's ballgames..no more calls about what to do. A good friend gone from this world in a flash. There is a reason, and only God knows. Mr Pete, Sean, family and friends..there is eternal life and we must all find peace and comfort in that. Its going to hurt for along time...But I know that she was a believer in Christ and in HIM alone do we need to pray for her children and family. I love you Misty, we have been through alot together but I will see you again! I love you Jordan, Kenzi and Little Brennan.

“ My heart is heavy and sad as Misty's death has left a huge void in so many people's lives. Misty was truly a terrific mother and friend. She treated my children, as well as my sister, as if they were her own. My thoughts and prayer's go out to Jordan, especially for his bravery, Melisa, Brennan, Mr. Carter, Tripp, as well as the rest of her family. I hope and pray that all 3 children will be able to stay close together. Misty, you will be truly missed but not forgotten. God bless.

“ I was very sad to hear about Misty's death. She was a dear friend. When I first met her, I didn't care for her simply because she was my ex-husbands girlfriend, BUT Misty taught me about putting the kids first in this kind of situation and in the end, we became good friends. She has a good heart and is a terrific mom. I hope Jordan, Melisa and Brennen know that she is sitting up in heaven with her mom and watching out for them and that she loved her children and Sean very much.

“ I do not know Misty or any family members but I am the 911 Dispatcher Jordan reached when he so bravely tried to get help for his mom. From the moment I answered the phone and Jordan told thought his mom had a heart attack, he was trying so hard to get me the exact location where they were, giving me different landmarks. His concern for his mother and baby sister was first priority to him. He asked me if I wanted him to stop the Durango and he told me when he had done that. Even though Jordan was doing everything I asked of him, I asked if he saw an adult in the area that I could speak with to get further information. As he looked around he waved down a kind gentleman named David Jackson who then got on the phone and gave me further information to pass on to EMS. He assured me that the situation was critical and assured me he would stay with the patient and Jordan until EMS arrived. Jordan, your mother must be so proud of your heroic efforts to save her life. She will truly be your guardian angel as she watches over you from heaven. You are a true hero to this 911 Dispatcher. The assistance you provided to me makes you a hero - a 911 Hero. You remained calm and composed in a situation where few adults do. God bless you.

“It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect”. 2 Samuel 22:33

I am Bobby (Jordan's) stepmother. As the mother of three boys... and then two stepboys... I was sort of outnumbered in our crazy little Brady Bunch family. Jordan always kept things interesting for us. He is full of life and spirit and enthusiasm. He was just as likely to fall asleep curled up on the bed beside me watching a documentary as he was to be jumping around excited about watching a football game with his dad. He's a good kid. And as a mom, I believe good kids come from good parents. I have so much respect for Michael and Misty and the way they worked together to give Jordan every opportunity to enjoy both of his parents. Misty always respected my role in Jordan's dad's life. Misty always encouraged me when things got tough. She was more than a friend... she was sister... Just recently when I was going through a hard time she offered to send me clothes... her clothes... said she had "too many anyways". You may talk about someone who will give you the shirt off their back. Misty truly would. Misty, I committ to being a prayer warrior for your children... to helping when and where I can... to giving Jordan another home to come to when he and his dad need a break from each other. I will keep your spirit alive i them. I will make sure they understand what an amazing, loving mommy they had. God will provide. Just watch over us, help us to do things as you would want... and know that for every day of the rest of my life I will think of you. All my love, Heather

“ Misty was a very dear friend that I held close to my heart....she was what I would call a "Sister". She was always willing to lend a shoulder, no matter what time of day and no matter how busy she may have been. She was a very loving mother to her kids and family was number one to her. Misty would be so proud of "Jordan" for his act of heroism! Misty always carried a positive attitude and had a way of lifting others up, when she was the one needing a lift. She finally found the happiness that she so much deserved this past year and I was so proud to see that. She touched mine and my family's life and I consider it a "true blessing" to have had her in my life. Thank you Misty for everything and I will do all I can to help look after Dad, Jordan, Melisa, Brennan and Shaun. I just can't believe you are gone! I will miss you so much girl! Tell Mom hello and give her a hug for me!
