

Murtha W. Adams Obituary

August 25, 1912 - March 14, 2009

Murtha Wilder Adams, 96, of Albany, died Saturday, March 14, 2009 at Albany Health Care. The graveside service will be held at 1:30 PM Wednesday at Oakview Cemetery with the Rev. Mark Jones officiating. Mrs. Adams was born in Albany to William Murtha Wilder and Eva Ware Wilder. She was a graduate of Brenau College in Gainesville, a member of First United Methodist Church in Albany, and a homemaker. She was preceded in death by a son, John M. Adams and a sister, Evalyn Wilder. Mrs. Adams is survived by a daughter, Eve Adams of East Lansing, MI; a son, David W. Adams and his wife Lynn of New Orleans, LA; a daughter-in-law, Denise Adams of Stony Point, NY; four grandchildren: Ware Adams and his wife Ellen, Lynn Lelong and her husband Bruce, Heather Troyer and her husband Jens Kulstad, and Jonathan Adams; and five great-grandchildren. The family would like to extend their appreciation to a longtime friend, Marguerite Dodgen for her kindness and friendship in all that she did for Mrs. Adams. You may sign the online guestbook and share your own special thoughts and memories with the family of Mrs. Adams by visiting Kimbrell-Stern's website at www.kimbrellstern.com. Those desiring may make memorial contributions to Brenau University, External Relations Department, 500 Washington St. S.E., Gainesville, GA 30501.

“ David and family, I lived down the street from your Mom and your family when I was growing up. Your Mom was a very sweet person. She and my Mom were good friends. My sympathy to you and family. God bless all of you.

“ *Dear Eve,
I am so sorry to hear about Murtha's passing. She was a lovely, unique lady. I feel very fortunate to have known her....and you know how much Art cared for her.
I will call you.
Love,
Sarah*
