March 12, 1954 - June 23, 2008

1Lt. Myra Kay Lee, (9th Regional Reserve Command, Hawaii) passed away Monday June 23 2008, in Hawaii, at her house, due to a heart attack. Myra was born March 12 1954 in Birmingham, AL to Rev. Rayferd & Margaret Bowman. She was a graduate of Jonesboro, High School in Jonesboro, GA. Myra is survived by her husband Chuck Lee, daughter Amanda Morris, granddaughter Devy Mikala, sisters Jane Tucker (Randy) of Albany, Georgia and Anna Bowman Roberts (Robbie) of Macon, Georgia. Myra was a life long professional Nurse, Legal Nurse Consultant, Soldier and Hawaii Disaster Assistance Member. Myra attained her degrees at Mercer and Baptist Colleges; additionally she achieved her Masters Degree in 2007. Myra's passion for education and professionalism was evident in her training that she completed for the Nursing, Military and FEMA Disaster professions. Over the last few years, Myra completed over 40 courses in these fields. Myra was a long time resident of the Atlanta area, where she worked for many years at Piedmont Hospital. In 2004, she was in charge of the US Army Hospital Emergency Room in Heidelberg Germany, where she trained many Army medics headed to Iraq. Myra received many accolades for her kindness, dedication and professionalism. Myra's Hawaii Disaster Medical Assistance Team (DMAT) support included frequent Flight Nurse Missions on Coast Guard C130 aircraft, 2006 Earthquake Kona Hospital Mission and numerous exercises. While working at Wahiawa Hospital, managing their Emergency Department in 2006, she was the Disaster Manager and conducted many meetings to integrate the Army, EMS, Police, Fire and Rescue elements. Myra returned to Hawaii in January 2008 to become the Queens Hospital Emergency Room Operations Manager, supervising their daily operations and a staff of 140. Myra quickly melded with the ER and became a friend and leader. On June 27, Queens Hospital conducted a Memorial Ceremony in her Honor with members from Queens, Wahiawa, HI DMAT, Honolulu Harley Owners Group, and various Military organizations, including Army General Kozlov and HIDMAT Commander Toby Clairmont... With special recognition given to the "Black Sheep" of 209th Bravo Company, Aviation Support Battalion, Wheeler Army Airfield who had adopted her. The funeral services for Myra will be 11 AM, Monday June 30, 2008 at Byne Memorial Baptist Church. The family will receive friends at 10 AM until the funeral hour. Dr. William H. Sims III will officiate and the interment will follow in Floral Memory Gardens. “ I am so very sad to hear about Myra's (Myrna, as I liked to call her) sudden death. I couldn't believe it! I spent some time with Myra when I first started working at Wahiawa General on Oahu. We shared an office. We really helped each other get used to a new place and had a lot of great laughs. Myra and I spent some great beach days together floating out in the water at Ko"Olina Resort talking about anything and everything. My shock at the loss of Myra continues and my heart felt sorrow for Chuck (from the "Mexican Fan Company"). I am so sorry Chuck.

With love and Aloha,

“ It has taken me a while to be able to share my tribute to Myra because her passing was such a shock to me. Myra was such a wonderful person. She was truly an Angel on this earth and while she has gone home to wear her wings, there's a BIG hole left in this world and the hearts of so many. This world is a darker, sadder place for her not being here. Myra's heart was bigger than anyone can even begin to imagine. She walked into my life at a time when I desperately needed a friend and reminded me that there is good in this world. She taught me so much over the 8 years I knew her and I'll forever be grateful for her love, support and dedication to our friendship. Myra, you will never be forgotten.

“ I'd like for the friends and family of Myra to know that I thought she was a nice person. She was gentle and kind with those entrusted in her care, and she always wanted to help others. She was a patriot, and I'm glad that I got to know her. She left us too early, but I suppose that even had she lived to be 100, that would have been too early for all of us left behind.

“ Amanda, Chuck and family;
Myra was one of the first persons I worked with at Piedmont Hospital 11 years ago. We worked weekends for many years crossing paths because we were on different shifts. She was always up to something! When she began to travel we kept up with her adventures. I was always amazed at her adventuresome spirit. She would go anywhere and try anything! What courage she had. She had a true "pioneer spirit". I don't know why but I was always surprised by her NEXT adventure or assignment. She was limitless. We kept up with one another through email. I spent Friday going back through them and the pictures she sent from all over. She was a character to say the least. I will miss her. This has probably been one of the most surprising and shocking events I have been through. I am stunned by her death. It will make me hug those I love a little more often and tighter, say I love you a little more and maybe a little more courageous. God has taken another "Star" for the skies of heaven. She is home for her ultimate adventure. May the comfort only the strength of God provide. She is safe in the arms of God. Although We are sad....this give us comfort

“ I worked for many years with Myra at a law firm in Atlanta. We became friends after Jim passed away and always had a big time shopping and going out to dinner with our friend Virginia. One of the funniest things I ever saw Myra do was have her eyebrows waxed. We went over to this little shop in Douglasville, and the lady slathered on the wax and the yank tape and ripped her eyebrows out by the roots. She hollered like she had been shot. The wax lady then proceeded to draw eyebrows in where she had yanked the real ones off. I looked at Myra and said, "Myra, that is about the dumbest thing I have ever seen. You yank your eyebrows out and then have them drawn back on. Why do you do that?" She looked at me and said, "Well, I don't know, but it doesn't make much sense does it." We laughed about that day so many times. Myra, rest in peace. God won't make you wax those brows. I will miss you and those crazy stories about what you had been up to. It is as if your light was burning bright and suddenly you were unplugged. Each time I think of you your crazy antics will make me laugh.

“ I have known Myra for the majority of my adult life. My mother and I first met Myra when she was the owner an antique store in Buchanan, GA; we clicked and became immediate friends. Myra taught me how to decorate my house using antiques and to make it a home; her home was always on the Tour of Homes in Haralson County.

Myra encouraged me to obtain my BSN at Georgia Baptist and offered to be there for me to lean on; she was always there. During my tenure at Piedmont Hospital, Myra was my first preceptor in the ED. I remember her telling me, ?I am going to teach you the Piedmont way and then Myra?s way of doing things?. Myra?s way taught me how to become a critical thinker and to be strong ED nurse.

Myra always encouraged me to live life to the fullest, have fun doing it, and to not be afraid to step outside the box. We shared many tears and cheers together over situations in each other?s lives. I learned from Myra how to dust myself off and move forward again when life throws you unexpected surprises.

Amanda, God wrote in his Book of Life for Myra to raise you to become a strong, independent, and vibrant woman; Myra completed her assignment. Now it is your time to do the same. I know your heart mourns and that?s ok; God will comfort you.

Chuck, thank you from the bottom of my heart for loving Myra and making her the happiest woman in world. You encouraged her to excel and live her dreams; and to be ?Myra? as is. Thank you for being her soul-mate.

Myra and I always kept our friendship on the ?real? side of life. I know in my heart she is sitting in heaven with God; legs crossed, fingers and toenails painted, and wearing ?Myra?s? re-designed robe. She has already submitted to God, for his approval of course, her design plans to restructure and redecorate the entire west portion of the Kingdom. She will eventually get around to the entire Kingdom of God. I pray God will not allow Myra to paint my mansion in heaven pink :). I will miss you chick.

“ I first worked with Myra in 1988 at North Fulton. That is the way it is in the ED, you work there long enough and you work with most people again somewhere else. We next worked together at Piedmont. Myra had difficulties in her life but she didn't lose her perspective and was always striving for better and more. She could absolutely irritate you to pieces one minute and then have you laughing til you cried. She could be rough around the edges but had a heart of gold. I will miss knowing that she is out there living her dream.

“ Myra and I have been friends since 1997. We had chatted over the phone just this past Sunday, as though God would surely not call either of our names for many years to come. She was always so sweet to call & we were not only good friends, but we were shopping buddies. I would kid her about always being able to find the most incredible bargains. Though I know she is happy not to have lingered in some terrible state, I believe her time with us was cut cruelly short. Amanda, I cannot fathom what you're going through and Chuck, I know you adored her, as she did you. I take comfort in knowing she was where she wanted to be, doing what she loved.
