“ I just found out that Mrs. Haire passed away & wanted to offer my condolences to the entire Haire family. I was once a Haire myself, married to Tommy, & was greatly saddened that Mrs. Haire had to experience the loss of a child. I am sorry to hear of her passing but I know she lived a wonderful life surrounded by her family & friends. I'm sure her grandchildren & great grandchildren were such a blessing. Mrs. Haire never said an unkind word to me while she was my mother-in-law & one of my greatest regrets is the day I left & no longer had my in-laws as a part of my life. Sometimes things don't work out but I truly loved Mr. & Mrs. Haire & remember their kindness & generosity to me always. I am glad that she is at peace now with Tommy & Mr. Haire. She was an incredible lady & I'm sure you all miss her very much. One of my favorite memories is helping her can the vegetables that Mr. Haire grew in his garden. Every time I see someone canning now I think of her with fond memories. Thank you, Mrs. Haire, for everything you taught me & may you rest in peace. Love always, Kathy Horne Wilson
