“ Steven, may the Presence and peace of our loving Savior comfort and strengthen you during this difficult time. As you know, the death of the righteous is precious in God's sight. Knowing our loved ones pass from this life into the arms of Christ aids us in this journey. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, as well.

“ She was my sisters mother in law. Very nice woman. She will surely be missed by all. I spent time with her a while back in her home and we had many great conversations about first one thing and another. We laughed alot and even cried some. She told me about her Life and I told her about mine. We learned alot about each other and she told me she would never forget our visit together. I told her the same. She talked about her husband and when they got married and how much she missed him. She also talked about her life as a young girl. I loved that part. Then she ask me about my life and I told her and she said you sure have been thru alot I said yes I sure have. She said you are a good person Kathy. I told her thank-you and you are to. She told me then that she would never forget our visit that day. I have not forgot. I do no she is happy now because she is with her husband now. And her son Ronald. Rest in PEACE Mrs. Lloyd and I will miss you and always remember you. My dear Friend. Kathy
