“ *We met Miss Nina two years ago when we moved into the house next to hers. My son became friends with her and would help her out in the yard picking up pine cones and even cutting the grass.
She always told us to call her "granny". She was a sweet gentle lady who will be missed. Even though it was short we will treasure the moments shared. Our deepest sympathies to her family. God bless you.*

“ My family and I became Mrs. Childress's neighbors about a year and a half ago. We knew her only briefly, but we will remember her most for her loving kindness to neighbors, to her beautiful roses, and to the many birds that visited the birdbath in her yard. She must be enjoying our Lord Jesus at this very hour. We will miss her and think of her often until we're her neighbors once more, in Heaven.
