“ *David & Karol, I'm sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. I have good memories of the fish fries our families used to have when we were kids. I sincerely hope these words bring you comfort at this time.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I always enjoyed being around Mr. Simmons. He was an incredibly nice person, made me feel like one of the guys and I thought of him as another uncle. I won't forget how he always called me "papa-san," something that never failed to make me smile. Take care.

“ Fenn was a man of deep conviction, immensely talented, truly compassionate and a lover of life. Although I did not see him often over the 35+ years that I have know him, he impacted my thoughts and ideas and make my life better. He told me once to do it, but do it right - or go sit down. I will always heed that advice. My thoughts to Jo, David and Carol. Dan

“ David and Karol, You two have been so helpful to your parents, especially during the last few months of your dad's life. Your mom is always telling me about your visits and many phone calls - and Karol, you live such a long way from Albany. Now David, Atlanta is just a skip and a jump from Albany for someone of your energy! Or did it just give out when you left the 7th grade! Come back to see your mom on WMU day - then I can see you. I know you both will miss your dad. Love and prayers, Evangeline Matthews

“ We were so sorry to hear of Mr. Simmons passing. I was lucky to get the chance to meet Mr. Simmons not to long ago,It was the day before his last birthday, even though he was ill at the time he struck me as a man of confidence with solid standards and a natural grace who loved his family very much, may he go in peace knowing that he instilled the same values in his children. Our love to his family.
