

Ossie W. Booker Obituary

June 4, 1917 - March 13, 2004

A native of Worth County, Mrs. Booker had lived in the Albany area all of her life. She worked with the State of Georgia Housing Authority as a Project Manager until her retirement. She volunteered as a Pink Lady at Palmyra Medical Center for a number of years and was awarded the Humanitarian Award for her work as a Pink Lady. Mrs. Booker was a member of the Lula Johnson Sewing Club and the Momocco Club. She was a member of Sunnyside Baptist Church and the Gleaners' Sunday School Class. She was preceded in death by a sister, Clora B. Rhodes; two brothers: Wesley Waters and Johnnie Waters; and a grandson, Marc Simoneau.

Tribute Wall

“ Ossie W. Booker Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ Ossie W. Booker Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ As a small child I was taught Sunday school and Bible school by Mrs Booker. truly no one could have said better than Mr. Robert Simonear, the kind of person she was. Having visited in her home as a very young child through my teens, I truly knew the kindness she bestowed upon everyone. Christlike, loving and kind can only begin to describe her. You have had a great loss in both Mr. and Mrs. Booker! May God Bless You

Erlene C Littleton - October 03, 2004 at 12:00 AM

RS

“ When contemplating death, one looks to the deceased life work for comfort and often seeks consolation in God's inspired Word. In I Corinthians 3: 5-6, the early Christian Missionary, St. Paul in a letter to his recent converts writes:

?We are simply God?s servants. Each one of us does the work which the Lord gave him to do. I planted the seed, Appolos watered the plant, but it was God who made the plant grow? Your mom certainly was a servant of God in her life and for that she will be remembered eternally.

In remembering your Mom, whom I met only once in Atlanta, GA, and when I think of her relating to you Joyce on that sad occasion , I am reminded of the definition of love given to us by Paul in I Corinthians 13:4 and reflects very much the woman your Mom showed us all. It reads:

?Love is patient. Love is kind. It does not envy, it does boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking.?

With sincere sympathies to Joyce and Betty, from the family of Robert and Maureen Simoneau of Wolfeboro, NH our prayers are with you.

Robert G. Simoneau - April 25, 2004 at 12:00 AM

HB

“ May God Bless all of the family. We are praying for all of you. Herb and Helen Blackwell f-86

Helen and Herb Blackwell - March 18, 2004 at 12:00 AM

EM

“ We cannot know why things happen the way they happen. All we an do is keep hope in our hearts and how much others care. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family today.

Ed & Joyce McQuillen - March 17, 2004 at 12:00 AM

SC

“ I have not had the opportunity to get to know Ossie that well since she has been living at the Seasons' Christian Center but am deeply sorry for your loss.

Shirley S. Cobb - March 17, 2004 at 12:00 AM