“ Mike, Clayton and ALL extended family - Everyone says their thoughts and prayers are with you but we really want you to know how much we have prayed for Pam in the past and how much we prayed for all of you since last Wednesday. We will continue to pray for your strength and comfort from our Father who knows His plan for each of us and knows exactly when we need His help. We'll be praying for special grandma Pam kisses on your littlest one just when they are needed. God bless your family and we hope you can feel all the prayers so many are lifting for you all. “ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Pam's death!

I taught with Pam at Blue Ridge Elementary School and actually taught Clayton. What a wonderful coworker and friend she was! She helped make teaching fun and rewarding! What a great lady!

My thoughts and prayers are with you!

“ I had the pleasure of working with Pam at Woodstock Elementary from 1999-2003. I fondly remember Pam as an amazing teacher and a compassionate soul. I am thankful God allowed our paths to cross for a short while. May God's grace bring all of her family peace and comfort during this difficult time. I will always smile :-)

“ I met Pam at Woodstock Elementary School where I am a Substitute Teacher...for a few years I worked with Pam and for Pam. In such a short time she touched my heart like no other. Pam was such a sweet and kind woman. I gave her a hug and cried the day she retired and have thought of her often since then. I did just get an email from Pam a few weeks ago telling me all about her Grandson....how proud she was of that little boy! Pam will be missed dearly.
