“ Dear Russell and family,
I was so sorry to read about Pat in the paper today. I truly wish I could have seen you today, but I didn't know in time. Pat was such a special person with such talent. I don't know if you will remember or not, but my son, Russell Gray, went to Miss Pat's for several years. Maybe this little story will jog your memory.
One morning while the kids were playing hide and seek, my Russell decided to hide under your bed so no one could find him. For extra insurance, he locked the bedroom door. When he was discovered, he refused to unlock the door. That's when Pat panicked and called you home. If you remember, You had to remove the storm window to the bedroom to retrieve my son and unlock the door. This is just one incident I can recall. There are so many more.
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. She was such a lovely lady.
Sincerely,
Virginia Gray

“ Dear Russell:
It was with great sadness that I learned today about Patsy's death. Our prayers are with you in this difficult time. May God strengthen you and fortify your memories of all the good times you two had together.
Trust in Him and lean on Him and know that He understands your sorrow and feels your pain.
Your friends,
Paul and Helen McCorvey
