“ Aunt Pat was always special to me. I have so many wonderful childhood memories of visiting with Aunt Pat, Uncle Larkin, Godfrey (Tank) and Jan (before Claire was born). Aunt Pat was the perfect homemaker with a spotless house and delicious food cooking on the stove. She was always kind and good and I loved her dearly. Later, Suzanne, John, Randy and I enjoyed being with her, Uncle Larkin and all our family at the family reunions in Albany. Aunt Pat and Uncle Larkin were gracious hosts at the reunion. I am thankful Aunt Pat is at peace and in the presence of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ along with our loved ones who have gone before her.

“ Aunt Pat was a wonderful, kind person, and was married to someone just as kind and wonderful as she. I rejoice that she is now in Heaven with her Lord and Savior.
