“ I loved my sis dearly. We never had a long brother/ sister relationship because I was going into the Navy when she was still a small baby girl. Even when I took leave to come home for a short time, ther wasn"t enough time to catch up on my being absent from her childhood days. After serving my country, I fell in love with a California girl, got married and started raising a family here. I still came back to visit and stayed in touch with my family. Somehow Pat and I started communicating over the phone. Well if you know my sister, she was a talker and I listen to her tell me everything that was going on past, present and future.I did get a word in occasionally. lol My long story cut short is; I will miss her sweet voice next to my ear laughing, crying on the inside from the pain she was in at the time, but she never let you know it. I am going to miss her, but I know she is still carrying on our unfinished conversations in a new heavenly environment w/o that awful pain. Love U Pat, your brother Boy Jr.

“ Jimmy, I just heard about Trish passing. I am so sorry. I met her when she was in my class at Albany Jr High in 1961, Mr. Posey's class. I will never forget when she came to school wearing a Pink Scarf around her neck when Jimmy Tabb's song came out. We also attend Albany High School together, through the years her and we would often talk about her wearing that Pink Scarf and would laugh about it!

What I remember the most about her was that she was always so sweet to everyone.

Jimmy, you and your family are in my prayers.

Love, Dianne Tedder

“ Pat never realized how much of a blessing she was to so many people. She was a godly mother and wife, a prayer warrior, and an encouraging light for family and friends when they faced darkness in their own lives. She was an inspiration to many who knew that through all her pain and suffering she never once took her eyes off her first love--Jesus.

I think Pat would want me to acknowledge the love and care that her husband of 49 years gave her. She loved Jimmy deeply, and her children and grandchildren, as well. My thanks to all of you for the love and kindness you showed her through the years. I know it was not an easy task, but it was one that she greatly appreciated.

She will be missed.....

“ We never met Mrs. Rigsby but we've known her son Ryan for 14 years. She raised a Godly man. He is an excellent example of someone who not only talks the talk but walks the walk. Our girls look up to and love Mr. Ryan and Mrs. Jennifer.
