Patricia (Pat) Cook Bullard, age 74, passed away Saturday, January 4, 2020. She was the daughter of the late Martha Kelley Cook and Roy Rufus Cook. An Albany resident for her whole life, Pat was born on Christmas Eve in 1945. She attended Jack and Jill Kindergarten and public schools, graduating from Albany High School in 1964. She received her bachelor's degree in education from Georgia Southern University and went on to teach second grade in the Dougherty County School System for 30 years. Pat was an active member of Porterfield Memorial United Methodist Church. She loved the ladies in her circle and the members of her Sunday school class. She was also part of an eclectic group of friends that met every Thursday evening for dinner for many years and a small group of retired teachers who met for lunch once a month at Stonebridge.

Pat was predeceased by her husband of 43 years, the love of her life, James Terrell (Terry) Bullard.

Survivors include their only child, Kelley Bullard Burns, Kelley's husband, Mac Burns, and Pat's beloved granddaughter, Emma Grace Burns, all of St. Johns, Florida. She also leaves behind her sister, Lucy Cook Tracy of Albany, and her sister-in-law, Mary Belle Godwin of Pelham as well as two beloved nephews: Terrell Godwin of Valdosta, GA and Alex Tracy and his family of Towson, MD. Pat was especially close to four cousins: Mary Nell Lovering of Colquitt, GA,

Georgia Kimbrel of Colquitt, Georgia, Billie Allen of Aiken, South Carolina, and James W. (Jimmy) Cobb of Blountstown, Florida. Breanna Randle, a former student, was also an important part of the Bullard family.

“ Kelly and Lucy, Is so sorry to read of Pats death. While I haven't seen her in a while , I always enjoyed running into her and catching up on how Kelly was doing and what was new. She was very proud of her daughter and nephew and loved sharing their newest life's events. I enjoyed knowing her and cherish having memories of her.
