“ *On my Christmas break from Auburn in 1957 Patsy got me a seasonal mail carrier job. I stayed with she and Dick and delivered holiday mail in Avondale Estates. The regular mailman would sort out the Christmas cards, Post Magazines, Sears Catologs and I would walk with big leather bag of mail. When the bag was empty I was usually in front of a blue USMail box and another bag of sorted mail. Patsy was very kind to both Dicks little brothers. Very Greatful.
