

Patricia Marlene Tripp Essick Obituary

March 7, 1955 - May 14, 2010

Born in Americus, GA Mrs. Essick lived in Albany most of her life where she attended Dougherty County Public Schools and was a member of Sunnyside Baptist Church. Mrs. Essick worked in the clerical field for security companies and electrical contractors. Her last employment was with Hagemeyer Co. for 15 years. She was an avid animal lover and rose gardener; growing various varieties of roses she enjoyed watching from her patio each bloom open itself to the beautiful hummingbirds that surrounded her garden. Mrs. Essick will always be remembered for her love of people and love of talking, which in turn established numerous friendships over the years. Of all the times spent with family and friends, none could compare to her most cherished times spent with her two grandson's. She was preceded in death by an infant son, Jess Willard Drawdy and her parents, Jess Willard Tripp and Sara Pauline Avery Tripp. Survivors include her husband of 29 years Randy Essick of Sylvester, GA; two children, Peter Scott Kaltsas and his wife Christina of Sylvester and Amy Christina Kaltsas Stinson and her husband Matthew of Atlanta; sister Betty Jean Tripp Soley and her husband Arnold of Albany; brother James Willard Tripp and his wife Bess of Albany; two grandchildren, Christopher Kaltsas and Ayden Christian Kaltsas; two Aunts Helen Durden of Americus and Eunice Nelson of Leslie, GA; a special niece, Sara Fields of Lacombe, LA who was of the same age as Pat growing up together like sisters sharing with each other their life's most memorable moments. She is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and aunts.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Pat. I went to school and church with Pat. I have not seen Pat since the 10th grade. I moved away 20 years ago but have stayed in touch with a few childhood friends. Patty called me yesterday and told me about Pat. I will keep the Essick famly and Tripp family in my prays.
