“ My fondest memories of Pat were from many years ago when we were children in Uncle CB's bait shop playing with the worms and crickets. I remember his laughter and smiles from those great days of enjoying simple times.
With much love,
Cousin Claire Morgan Jackoski

Loved the Harris family growing up. So sorry for your loss. Pat was always so sweet and a special friend. The older he got the more he looked like Mr. CB. When I ran into Pat over the years there was always a big hug. Pat will always be special in my memories.

I grew up with all the Harris children, but especially Pat. We were the same age and shared so many secrets. We would go on treasure hunts and other adventures as children do. We grew up and still stayed I touch, Pat was a true friend that would do anything for you that he could. What I'll remember is his smile, kindness and tenderness of heart for all those he called friends and his family of whom he was very proud. Love you always, Karen Aultman Luke
