“ Daddy 09/3/55 - 11/10/12

My daddy was my rock. He was a great man with a heart of gold. He would do anything for anybody. He is GREATLY missed. He was kind, loving, caring, thoughtful, no words could explain how awesome of a dad he really was. He was the best dad that anyone could ask for. He was always there for me no matter what time or reason. I never got to tell him how much he meant to me, Or that he was the best dad, better than any man could be. I miss him more than I can explain. Love Daddy's Little Girl

*This is a poem I found, dedicated to my daddy that passed 11-10-12
The bond between father and daughter happens instantly, starting right at birth,*

When a father first lays eyes on his little girl he loves her more than anything on this earth,

When a daughter grows older her father is the first man she will love,

*And the last one her father will have trouble letting go of,
In her eyes he is the closest thing to God, in her eyes he is a King,
To her father she means the world, she means everything.*

*When a daughter grows up to be an adult and mature,
Her father will always be there anytime she still needs dad to help her,*

*To give her advice or just-for anything she will ever need,
The bond between father and daughter is the most important bond indeed,*

*It cannot be broken when she finds a man, and become his wife,
It cannot be broken even in the ending of either ones life,
A daughter will always have the memories of her father, her best friend*

This bond has a beginning, but there is never an end.

The bond between a father and daughter is so profound

The love shared is well renowned,

From the beginning of his daughters life, he is a changed man,

At that moment his life really just began.

From the moment their eyes meet,

two souls instantly become complete.

“ What can I say about Pat? He was my childhood friend who was closer than a brother. Talented, smart, and always up to mischief. So many stories involving him and I from being waiters at the Twilight Restaurant to being young pastors of a children's church back home. We grew up but never apart. I will miss him greatly.

“ “Those who we love don't go away. They walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved, still missed and very dear”
My brother, my friend, I'll miss you every day until we meet again.

“ I was so very sad to learn of Pat's passing. We were friends when I first moved to Milledgeville back in the 70's to attend Georgia College. What I remember most about Pat was his smile, laugh and the way he always made you feel welcome and comfortable in his presence. He loved being around people and people loved being around him. Although it has been years since I last saw him, I often thought about him. My prayers and thoughts are with Pat's family and friends. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ As a Youth Minister, Pat touched the lives of many children and teens. The impact he had on their lives will live on. I can imagine the reunion he, Frankie Amerson, and Larry Bond had when he entered Heaven's gate.

“ Patrick is one of those rare people who could bring a smile to anyone, even when he himself in pain. Pat and Aunt Bev would come visit me and Mom whenever I came out to GA. Without hesitation he helped his mom, my Aunt Bev, and my Mom Ree with a smile and love. Pat will be so missed and while we will all miss him here with us, he will be in loving arms in heaven. No longer in pain and probably already jumping in to help.

“ Patrick was a very special person. He loved his family and friends and he was loved in return. I had not seen him for a while. He had invited me up to visit and listen to music. We also communicated on Facebook. I remember what a cute baby he was and how he loved his mama.

I pray for his soul and ask God to bless and keep all of you.

Love
