

Patsy Larue Goldsmith Obituary

August 5, 1925 - August 17, 2010

Mrs. Goldsmith was born in Wagoner, OK, and moved to Albany in 1946. She was a graduate of Fort Smith High School, Ft. Smith Arkansas. She worked as a bookkeeper at First State Bank in Albany, and then worked with her husband, Walter Goldsmith at Goldsmith's Men's and Boys store for many years. Mrs. Goldsmith was a charter member of the Albany Junior Woman's Club, a member and past president of the Ladies Auxiliary of Optimist Club, past member of the Albany Woman's Club, past member of the Charity League of Albany, past member of the Temple B'nai Israel Sisterhood. She was a charter member of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Albany. Mrs. Goldsmith was preceded in death by her husband, Walter M. Goldsmith; her parents, William G. and LaRue Pate Ward; her sister, Betty Lou Lowery; her brother, William G. Ward, Jr. She is survived by her son: Dr. Stephen W. Goldsmith, Alexandria, VA; her daughter: Celia "Cissy" Goldsmith DuRant and her husband Gene, Columbus, GA; 4 grandchildren: Stephanie Goldsmith Terry and her husband Ted, Charleston, SC, Daniel Goldsmith, Atlanta, GA, Katherine DuRant Burke and her husband Jonathan, Arlington, VA, Margaret DuRant, Washington, DC; 2 great-grandchildren: Levi Terry and Amos Terry, both of Charleston, SC; a sister: Loretta Daniels and her husband George, Albany; 2 sisters in law: Mildred Faber, Albany, Jane Goldsmith, Albany; several nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Patsy Larue Goldsmith Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Patsy Larue Goldsmith Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 01:29 AM

“ Cissey, I am sorry I did not hvae an opportunity to see you. Please know that you and your family have been in my thoughts, prayers, and love. "Mrs. Peacock"

Ann Peacock Voss - September 07, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Steve and Cissy, Your mom was such a lovely person. I am certain you will miss her but may the fond memories keep her close to you.

Vickie Southwell - August 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Cissy and Steve, no better friends or neighbors could we have asked for. Your Mama was so dear to us all and oh what memories we all have of her and your Daddy! Love to you and the family, The Dowdells

Susan Dowdell Smith - August 18, 2010 at 12:00 AM