Patty Sue "Mawz" Hopkins Pichelmayer of Ft Gaines Georgia passed away November 5, 2025 at the age of 88 at her son's home in Panama City Florida.

Patty was preceded in death by her loving husband, Johnnie "Pawz" Pichelmayer, her parents - Ruth and "Hop" Hopkins, her brother Danny, and her biological father, Burrell Curtis (Sam) Hall.

She is Survived by her daughter Bettina Pichelmayer, son Kirk (Robin) Pichelmayer;

grandchildren: Landon Burnette(Trevice), Jason Burnette (Danyelle), Amanda Powell (Taylor), Mary Burnette (Morgan Halley), Sam Burnette, Sarah Burnette (Ronald Link), John Daniel Burnette (Angel McDaniel), Ali Pichelmayer (Tony Campbell);

great grandchildren-Alona Burnette, Flora Burnette, Bennett Burnette

Mawz spent her younger years living all over the US as her dad followed pipe line construction. Her family settled in Albany GA when Mawz was in high school. She graduated from Albany High and went on to earn her associate's degree in home economics from South Georgia in Douglas Ga. She met and married her sweetheart Johnnie (who was lovingly referred to as Pawz). They settled and lived in Birmingham Alabama for the most part but had a beloved lake house in Ft Gaines Georgia that is still a family treasure. Mawz and Pawz retired to their dream house on the lake in 1994. Mawz was a home maker spending her time loving and nurturing her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She was a dog lover, loved crappie fishing, enjoyed arts and crafts, sewing, county music, especially Willie Nelson and a good thrift store! She will be missed by all who have known and loved her.
