“ I have known Paul as far back as i can remember! He has always been a kind hearted and loved with all his heart. I havent seen him in many years, but when ever I saw his sister I tell her to tell him HI. Every time I would think of Paul or here his name it would make me smile. He just had a way of making everyone around him feel welcome and was always a big brother even tho he was 3 days older than me. Paul I havent told you this in many years , but I LOVE YOU AND THINK YOUR A GREAT PERSON. I found out yeasterday that you were gone and it broke my heart in the middle of driving I had to pull over. Sorry I missed telling you this in person. There is 25 yrs of endless memories and I will keep telling them all to everyone and share some with your children one day.

“ To the Faulk Family:It is very sad to lose a dear loved one in death, especially one's child. But prayer to our heavenly Father can help us to continue to endure even during this difficult time. Another hope we have is the 'resurrection.' Our Father did not leave us with this sadness and no way out. By means of this hope we can all look forward to seeing our dear loved ones again. May you find comfort in knowing that one day all obedient mankind will welcome back the dead to a paradise with no more sickness and death. (Revelation 21:4)

“ Paul was a special young man. Several years ago, following a catastrophic accident in which my husband suffered a spinal cord injury, Paul was here, at my home, to help welcome him home from Shepard Spinal in Atlanta. Paul's great muscular arms lifted Jim up and brought him back into our home that he had been away from for 2 months. Over the years, I'd see Paul about town or at sport activities that his children and my youngest were involved in. I would always thank him for being there when I needed help. Paul rest in peace. You touched the Owens' lives and we will never forget you!
