“ *I met Rob in 1983. Back when Banana's Night Club was In full swing.
My friend and daughter had gone to Banana's and I came later on.
So when we got ready to leave, I left. When I got home no daughter.
She wouldn't get in the car because my friend was drunk and wouldn't let her drive. She was on the phone calling and Rob came up and knew who she was and told her he would take her home. It wasn't very long before Rob being the Gentleman that he was brought her home.
The only time I would see him would be when I would be at the club.
I can honestly say that he was a great friend.
I know you will miss him and you and the rest of the family will be in my prayers.*

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you let God's Word comfort you when it reads, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.” (Job 14:14, 15). God will have a yearning to resurrect faithful ones.

“ I want to express my sympathy to the family and friends of Paul. He was one of those people who could make you cry and laugh. Most of the time crying because you were laughing. I was fortunate to have worked with Paul at P&G and don't think I could ever forget him. I know he will be missed and I hope the fond memories you have of him will help sustain you through this difficult time. My prayers are that God will help give you peace. God bless you all.

Beth..Luanne told me the other night that Paul taught her how to drive a straight stick..that if it wasn't for him, she'd have never learned..cherish those wonderful memories..you all have a strong, loving family..hold on to each other, but most of all, hold on to Jesus..HE loves you all so much, and HE cares about what you are going through. “ Though we didn't have the privilege of knowing Paul, we knew "of him" because of Amy and Jill...in times like these words aren't always adequate in expressing our sympathy, but please know we are saddened by your brother's passing...a reminder we all have to pass this way one day. Our prayer for you, your families and friends is that God will grant you His Peace, Comfort, Strength, Love...whatever you need the most...and that you will feel His Presence now and in the coming days when the crowds are gone, returning to their respective routines, and you are left in your quiet down time.

“ Snatched from life far too soon, Red Rob loved his family and friends. He loved living and enjoyed passing that enthusiasm for life on to those who were fortunate to cross his path. It is so sad to know he is gone from this earth but as God has promised us all, we have the promise of an eternal life where we can all be together again. My heart aches knowing I won't have the opportunity to see him or hear that booming voice on the other end of the phone ever again but I am comforted to know he's up there fishing on that great big beautiful lake in heaven. When we get there he'll be there with those big ole arms waiting to welcome us home. May you all know God's presence is with you through the coming hours and days. My heartfelt sympathy goes to all of Paul's family, Lisa, Lauren, Amy, Beth, Jill, Robin and those precious grandchildren he loved so much.

“ Rob was so full of life. Always willing to help be they family, friend or stranger. But what I will remember most are the smiles and laughter. Never did I see him without a smile on his face. And he could make anyone laugh. No matter how down or upset, he wouldn't give up til he got you to smile. Rest in peace my beloved friend. You've earned it.
