“ Never have I known a soul more tender, loving or loyal than the one I call 'Jay'. A truly amazing artist; a human being who's ability to love unconditionally was limitless. I wish I'd been able to spend more time with him in this lifetime, but of the time we shared together his presence was like that of a brightly shining star always within arms reach, able to help and comfort those who reached out for him. I shall forever remember you Jay, my cousin, fondly. You will be sorely missed, but never forgotten and always dearly loved in my heart.
