“ To My Very Best Friend, I cannot put into words the foreverlasting impression you have left on my life, I have never met a person that was so true, compassionate, understanding, and always such sheer bliss to be around. You listened to my problems, when I should have been listening harder to yours, you were my shoulder to cry on, when I could have offered mine at your most desperate time. You will always be in my thoughts and in my prayers. And I'll be listening extra hard if you ever want talk, I Love You Forever, your cousin Robin.

“ I knew Phil as a friend and as a business associate. He was always so kind and never said a harsh word about anyone. Phil would give you the shirt off his back, and never expect anything in return. He was a TRUE friend in every sense of the word. It goes without saying that Phil will be greatly missed. To Phil's family...please accept my deepest sympathy in this time of sorrow and may God bring peace and comfort to your hearts. Phil was very well thought of and there really are no words which can express what a wonderful, kind, and sincere person he was.

“ Dear Jeff and Ralph,
I am so sorry to hear about Phil. We just returned from vacation and got the news. I am so sorry I was not able to attend the funeral. (We had gone to Panama City Beach and Destin and I was telling my daughters when we were in Panama City about going with your family to the beach and staying at the State Park and swimming and fishing off the jetties. I was telling them how much fun we had.) Know you are both in my heart and prayers. I know this will be a hard time for both of you. Please call me sometime. Love, Traci

“ The first time I met Phil I knew he was genuine. His eyes and smile were the windows to his soul. He became my step-brother almost four years ago when my mother married his father. My only regret is that I didn't get to know him better. I figured we had many years to do that. This tragedy has taught me to never take anyone special in my life for granted. Phil has found peace in Jesus Christ and that is my joy. My sincere love and prayers go out to his family and friends.

“ From the time that I first met Phil, I knew that he was a kind and generous man who you couldn't help but love. I am happy to have been a part of his life by falling in love with and marrying his dad. I look forward to the day that I can see them both again in Heaven. I will be praying for all of us. Sue

“ It is said that under God, all things have a purpose. And I know Phil, yours was to show me how to be a friend. Whatever anyone needed, you were there; you always took the time to call and just say, "What's happening". I'll miss talking racing with you and watching you kick their butts at the track, but most of all miss you. One day, we will understand all this my friend, but until we see you again, rest and know all your friends miss and love you very much.
