“ I love and miss you now and forever. We all shared some very fun, caring and good family time in the times in Greensboro. In that short period of time you also became one of my best friends a person could ever need or ask for. My heart hurts so much that we did not make it down to celebrate your life in september as we had planned when we last talked with each other. I will see you again in the future Mr.Archer. I know you are up there looking out for the rest of us that remain here on earth. God bless and we will meet again and will rejoice when that day comes. Until then, rest in peace my loved one .

*Love always,
Rose*
