

Ray Riner Obituary

May 3, 1935 - January 4, 2004

A native of Clincaco, VA, Mr. Riner has lived in Albany 45 years where he was of the Church of God faith, and was retired from the United States Marine Corp. after 20 years of service, serving during the Vietnam War.

Tribute Wall

“ Ray Riner Obituary

May 22, 2023 at 10:29 AM

“ iam his one and only granddaughter my brother austin was on of his 5 grandsons and i enjoied being his only granddaughter

pj, duncan - February 07, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Ray and Jean was responsible for me and her brother to move to georiga. They opened their home to us and they were always there for us. Ray and Jean were very wonderful people and they raised their children just like they were and there children are upstanding people in the community. They taught them always to be honest and not to lie or cheat people. Ray and Jean lead the life before them and I'm proud of what they have done. Ray was a good man and he always was real good to us . Plus he allowed my husband to live with them while he was down here from Virginia and Ray got him a job so he could move his family down here and they loved it so good they never moved. So for that I will always be grateful.

judy phillips - January 19, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Belva, Sorry to hear about your dad. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Take care and God bless.

tonya and zack erickson - January 07, 2004 at 12:00 AM

CH

“ Ray was one of the finest men I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. ”

Colleen Hartzo - January 07, 2004 at 12:00 AM

DR

“ It's very nise. ”

deborah riner - January 05, 2004 at 12:00 AM