“ Cary was a close family friend, teacher, and mentor. He told me at an early age I had the potential to be on stage as a career and never left it since. I think about him every day and I know he would be proud of where i am now.

“ I just learned of Cary's passing on Facebook. I want to offer my condolences to the entire family, especially Mrs. Cherie. Cary always made music so much fun and I won't ever forget the day that he and I made candles in Mrs. Cherie's kitchen. There was a lot of laughing and a lot of mess made that day. I don't think Mrs. Cherie ever got over the wax in her good boilers. The world has truly lost a magical, musical gift and it will never be the same again. There is a special star burning brightly now that is all Cary. My love to you all.

“ Today was one of those life-altering events when I read my parents' email about Cary's passing. I met Cary when I was just a child, & he was my first musical mentor, instructor, supporter, & friend. He once invited me, when I was just a kid, to sing 2 songs at one of his gigs at Garganos East. It was my 1st public appearance. If not for him, I might not be a musician today. I owe him so much, & I sorrow for your loss. Please feel free to contact me anytime. May God bless you & support you in this time,

Ace
