“ Since I was 15 years old Papa taught me about life and what makes a man, and that was having character. He was a man of great character. When I married his daughter, he became the father I never had. I have some very large shoes to fill, being the next in line for our family. But I know all I have to do is follow his teachings and he will be proud of me. Go rest high on that mountain, Pop, and we will see you in Heaven one day. I love you, Barry
