“ Charles, Car trouble prevented my being at the sevice. Rebecca was always special to Mama and me. I appreciate her beyond what help she gave me beyond my taxes.

“ Sincerest sympathy to the family of Rebecca. She was my neighbor at 112 S. Jefferson Street in the fifties. I remember her as a beautiful lady -- she gave me my first bottle of Channel #5 when I graduated from High School. My Dad, Fred Amann, was her friend throughout most of their lives - and she always did his taxes.

“ Rebecca was my sister-in-law, and I always enjoyed visiting with her. I remember fondly of her wedding to Takis. What a special couple they were. I remember how sweet and kind she was and how she loved to cook! My husband, her brother John, always had a special place in his heart for his older sister who gave him guidance in his college years. He became a veterinarian that was well loved in his community. I am sure he helped welcome her to heaven. Please know that support, love and sympathy are with you at this difficult time. Love, Margie

“ Rebecca was my aunt on my fathers side. (Her brother John preceded her in death) I always will remember her as such a sweet and giving person who enjoyed life. It was a treat when she and Uncle Takis would come to visit us in Florida. They would bring pictures of their latest trips and goodies from wherever they had gone. Aunt Becca was a very smart business woman even before women had their own companies. She had her own way of doing things, so you wouldn't mess with "Ms. Becca". I know she is reunited with her parents, husband , and brother in heaven. She was loved and will be missed.
