“ I met Becky shortly after I started working at Doublegate Country Club as a cook...I called her the queen of the sports lounge because she really knew how to run that place....on the morning of 911 someone ran in the kitchen(sorry I forgot her name) and said yall come quik...we are at war....I remember running to the sports lounge and looking at the flatscreen t.v.---at that moment there was a plane hitting the tower...everybody was just standing there looking in shock...Becky stood next to me and whispered..."Niicy I just don't know if I want to take my ass out there and ride that golf cart nomore...what if they come here too..."Now that is the Becky I remember...sweet,funny,and caring even in a situation like that...we became good friends and I will never forget her.....love you,Becky...friend always,Bernice Shepherd

“ One tends to go thru life assuming because they are one of the older siblings its their job to lead the younger ones. But for me the past decade or more I've been taught more by my little sister than I feel I've passed down to her. I really miss you already, so much Becky. I love you with all my heart and soul. Much love to her children and theirs, and to my brothers and sisters. Christ will light our way... All he ask is that we pray. Thank you all... Love Glenn wood

“ Enjoying the memory of all our times together. today just remembering her visit to see me here at my home in Texas. I took her to the Riverwalk and to the Cave Without A Name and several other places around town also paid for her to come to my tanning bed place while she was here....we in general had a blast. I will always love you Sissy

“ Aunt Becky was a wonderful person. I am very fortunate to have known her for the last 11 years. She was very proud of April and Larry and loved her grandchildren more than anything. She was defiantly a very special person and will truly be missed. I am so sorry for the loss but know one day we will see her again.

I never had the honor of meeting Becky, but through a friend felt like I knew her. Gone too soon, but never forgotten. Heartfelt sympathies to her family and friends.
