“ While Reg would wince at my flowery language, as he often did, he left a legacy of younger attorneys for whom he provided an example of honorable manhood not often seen these days. Twenty five years ago he welcomed me to the Firm, and I never doubted that behind that assumed gruff manner, he watched out for and trained me in what could only be termed a fatherly way. Barbara adopted my then new wife, and later taught my children at Pre-school, thus completing the Bell's tutorage of the Mavity family. Reg was a fine lawyer, a good friend, and a heck of an athlete and outdoorsman. I miss running, backpacking, and traveling with him on cases. Appropriately, my first trip as an attorney was with Reg to Albany almost 25 years to the day. My best to his wonderful family.
