“ Ricey was a loving, caring, thoughtful husband, Daddy and friend. He will be truly missed. I know he is with the Lord and he has no more pain or sorrow. I will miss him alot, he always kept me smiling and laughing when I would call to speak with Martha. May God bless Martha, Russell and Cathy and the family and friends that knew him. Love you all, Angie

“ Martha and Kathy it's okay now. Mr Ricey was one of the best friends one could have. Even though he was known as "Old Grouch" to me, he had a heart as big as the state of Georgia and he is not gone; he just went to the big Home Run in the sky to "get a cup" for himself and a "cowtail" for the one he loved the most.

“ I am saddened to learn of Ricey's passing. We were classmates at Albany Junior High and Albany High School. Ricey's Dad, Tom, worked with my Dad at Coats & Clark.
My prayers are with you all in this time of loss.
