“ *Juvanna and Michelle,
My heart is broken for you for the loss of your daddy. I will always love him for the love and kindness he shared with me. During our junior and high school years he was the father figure I so dearly needed in my life. He carried our motorcycles all the way to your Mamby and Daddy Dub's so we could ride them in Kentucky. He let us drive the car on the dirt roads to practice our driving skills. He spent many hours leading our youth choir at church. One of my fondest memories will always be when after he finished cooking breakfast for us he would ask if we wanted orange juice or cow tiddy to drink. Its been a long time but I will always cherish the times you shared your daddy with me. He was the BEST!*
