“ To the Owens Family, I will always remember "Dutch" for his pleasant and friendly manner at our Albany Kawanis meetings. His greatness will live in the lives of the many people he touched from day to day. May he rest in peace. Egbert(Bert)J.Bacon

“ I have been out of town this week and just heard. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I never saw Mr. Owens when he didn't have a smile and a kind word (of course when I saw him he usually had several grandchildren or children underfoot). You could always tell he adored his family and I know he will be greatly missed. If there is anything I can do to help please let me know. Rani

“ To Marjorie and the entire Owens Family I offer my deepest condolences. Dutch was my friend, a fellow aviator, and a true gentleman. I am honored to have known him. Although I was unable to attend the services, I indeed was there, just overhead, in fact, at about 3:45 PM flying at 39,000 ft. I gave tribute to him amongst my peers and then waved my wings in his honor. May God rest his soul.

“ I will always remember Mr. Owens fondly as much more than a customer. He was a mentor for me in dealing with downtown merchants when I was at the Albany Herald. He always treated me kindly and never acted like I was just "the kid from the Herald." It used to be the high point of my day to get to come into Owens Sporting Goods and look through all the guns and sporting equipment and take advertisements for those things. I learned a lot in handling Owens for my 10 years at the Herald. I also remember Mr. Owens going to coffee daily with Cliff King, Larry and Bennie Prisant. I bet Cliff and Bennie are showing their old pal all the best spots in the clouds now.

I knew Mr. Owens was a fighter pilot during the war but I never knew he was an ace or that he had shot down a German jet. Few could claim that honor. I wish he had told me more of what he did during the war. I will miss him and pray for his family in this time of loss.

“ "Uncle Dutch" was always one of my favorite people. He had such good, dry wit and wisdom. I used to love to hear his mother Mary Owens tell funny and poignant stories about her boy, but more than that I remember his profound, but quiet way of summing up a person or a situation in such memorable words. I still laugh to myself about some of the things he said to me when we were both visiting with and caring for his mother when she was in the hospital. My prayers go out for you Marjorie (you are such a special and kind person), Ronnie, Larry, Linda, Charlotte and families. I have positive memories of all of you .

“ Mr."O".....There will never be a man I respect more. Your love for your country was unequal to any other. I don't know what I'll miss the most. If I had to pick one...it would be the war stories. To think, that I was listening to American History as it happened, was unbelievable. And you sir, were one of the main players. The fighter pilot. The hero. You're stories will not be forgotten. 'Til I see you again....I will tell your stories. People will know what you fought for. I won't let the few I can touch forget. I give you my word. Not only did you make me feel proud to be your employee... You made me feel proud to be an American! God Bless You Mr."O"!

“ Our country has lost a great warrior. We will miss him. His contributions to our well being during ww2 will never be forgotten. We love him and know he will be received and greeted in heaven by comrades who have preceded him there. A joyous reunion will take place and someday we will reunite with him too. “ Margie and family.

I saw tonight on the Internet that Dutch has now "flown on his final flight". I hope his last flight was a smooth one.

I read daily, "The Herald" on the Internet from my home in Sarasota, Florida.

I plan to leave early tomorrow morning to drive to Albany to attend the services.

I send my most sincere thoughts of sympathy and I deeply share your loss. An Icon and a true hero has passed from our lives. Dutch was the only "Ace" I have ever known personally in my life and I will miss him.

“ Marjorie, Mary and I send our condolences to you and your family. "Dutch" was special and I enjoyed the time that I had with him. He will be sorely missed by the flying community. He is in his element, "up in heaven, where the eagles roam." Take care my friend.
