“ Years have passed but the memories of the fellowship the dinners, and great conversations that we shared with Bob are still as fresh as yesterday . He was one of those people who always knew the right thing to say no matter the situation. He was so versed in the knowledge of the Bible it was always interesting to listen. He loved his wife, family and the cats . It was a honor for us to have known him and to be apart of his life while he and marsha lived in Albany Judy and I are sadden by this lost we will cherish the memories. Roger & Judy Davis

When I first met Bob he was an attorney in Albany and I was a new legal secretary. He was such a kind and friendly person and always professional and one of the most honest lawyers I have every known. Marsha, I was saddened to learn of Bob's passing and I know this is a difficult time for you and your family, but know that I've thought about you and Bob often and the wonderful life you have shared together. My condolences to you and your family in this time of bereavement and loss. He was a great man. Call should you need me.....Kay Heard Pierce, 229-416-8500.
