“ Just opening email for the first time this weekend brings me such sadness to learn of this untimely death of a great friend. Robbie as I called him way back, was so much fun. We often started the sock hop dances at the American Leagon. We both loved to dance! He always made me laugh and there was enough mischief that we manged to find in our teen years. We discussed that people thought we were a couple, but in Robbie's words "That would screw up everything" and so we were a cuple of solid friends. I am so grateful I had dinner with him and Gail while I was in town last summer. I am grateful for the high school years we had. We survived the "consolidation" together. God Bless Rob's family. I will miss him greatly. Kim

“ Shonna,
I have been where you are and it is a very difficult place and time. I know that there are no words that I can say right now to ease your pain, but know that I'm here, as I'm sure many are, if you need anything that includes a shoulder to cry on or an ear to listen. We all at Four Co. love you and hold you in our thoughts and prayers.
