“ Bob will be missed very much. I will cherish the memories of him. He was soft spoken and kind. He really love his family. He took care of Donna like she was the only person in the world. God has gained a true angel. I miss the time spent with him. May the family be blessed with his memories. Donna don't ever let him out of your heart.

“ I will miss seeing Bob. He always had a smile and a hug for you. I enjoyed singing in the choir with him and loved to see him turned red when Eddie sat next to him. What a very kind person.

“ My late husband Ang and I were part of the Cannon class years ago. This evening a group gathered at the Pennington's house for Chili and a bonfire. As we were all around the fire telling jokes , suddenly we heard a big noise coming from where Donna and Bob were. It was already getting dark. So, when we all looked well enough to see. Bob had been tilting his chair back and forth until the chair went all the way back and there he was on the floor. But that was not the funny part. Everybody was so in shock that nobody moved to help him quick enough until he said : I'm ok . And that was one of the many get togethers with Donna and Bob since the year of the flood. Ang and I had the honor to sing with him in the Choir. Such a gentleman. My prayers for strength, peace and comfort to Donna, the girls and the rest of the family,

“ The flood of 1994 is still a blur to us. One clear memory we have is of Bob painting the walls in our bedroom. Many people we know and many we didn't know helped us restore our house. Bob was one of the few people to help whose own house had also been flooded. RIP our kind and gentle friend.

“ Bob was a dear friend from First State Bank days and beyond. He and I ate many lunches ...we both seemed to like the same types of food. He was a great listener, showed compassion, and shared with him many times of praying for families. I cherish his memory. I am grateful to God he was placed in my path. Good memories of of Godly man.
