“ Deeply saddened to learn of my friend and Navy Seals passing. Too many memories to list. Good and not so good. From catching 40 and 50 lb. amberjack at Jekyll to sinking Bob and Bill's V.W.. Missy Dale, Little Grand Canyon, Bob and Bill, Eddie Faulkner and Hal Mc Gregor (buying ha ha) gas so we could go rabbit hunting all night in my 1955 Chevrolet. Bob mooning the Brazier crowd out the window of the same Chevy. Mr. Faulkner, amazed you got away with only iced tea. It took over a case of PBR for Bob and I to paint the stockyard ring in Dawson, Ga. Condolences Wayne and Elaine Parrish

“ Bob was a dear friend in our high school years. I will always remember him for his smart and savvy sense of humor; and he was certainly one of the most handsome guys to graduate Class of '65. To Kathy, Bill and their extended families ~ I pray that as your sweet and funny moments with Bob become precious memories that you will feel the peace and comfort of them in the difficult days ahead. My warmest condolences to each of you.

“ Memories ... I met Bob in the ninth grade. He came by my house one day not expecting him. I invited him in and we had tea, in tea cups, since that was the only thing to drink in the frig. From that day forward when greeting each other, we called each other “TEA Buddy”. Memories!

Bob, Bill, Nelson and I went to Panama City as teenagers. Bob and I chose to sleep at the Fountain Bleu motel . . . Bill and Nelson chose the Cross Bar Motel . . . Memories!

Memories we hold of a lost loved one or a friend. I will hold all good memories of Bob Russell!

Goodbye Tea Buddy . . . I will miss you.

Eddie Faulkner

Kathy . . . Thinking of you.

“ Bob, Bill and I were all put in the same carriage and wheeled around the block at Haley Drive and Cleveland Street. I was called the “third twin”. One of many memories from my childhood with Bob and Bill. I will miss him.
