“ RIP My friend....I worked with Bob for many years. He was a good Man to say the least and a pleasure to work for. His heart was huge to those he cared about and Loved. We kept in touch pretty much. I spoke to him 3 weeks ago, feeling great and content being at CobbleStone. We laughed and laughed talking about the car lots days as we always did when we talked. Although my name is Sherry, he insisted on calling me Cheryl Lynn, some of my family still today call me that and I answer. I gained a good friend in Bob Wale and good memories will be with me forever! No more pain, no more sickness, no worries. Rest in peace!

“ Mr. Bob was a great man. He often took the role of pseudo dad in my life as young man at Snaps - especially when he saw an opportunity to correct and teach me. He was always proud as he watched me progress through life. My sympathies to all of his family and friends. Respect, Sam
