“ I spent several years working with Roger. He was bright, witty, and knowledgeable about a variety of topics. He told great stories, and always made me laugh about something, which made my day much better.

“ Roger was a kind person. He just had worked on my computer the week before his passing and he was the only one who seem to know what I needed. He was always polite and so nice to talk too. I will miss him.

“ Roger was a dear friend and co-worker for more than 20 years. We shared a fine sense of the ridiculous and he was very tolerant of my puns. He will be sorely missed as well as irreplaceable.

“ When I transferred to the IT department at 2 Peachtree, Roger was the only one there who was willing to help me out. He always answered my questions and guided me in the right direction. I worked with Roger for 6 years and found him to be one of the most delightful people I worked with. His sense of humor and expansive knowledge in many areas always amazed me. He was a true southern gentleman and I am delighted to have known him. I will truly miss him.

“ My name is Sherry and I worked in the same office building with Roger. I use to talk to him during smoke breaks. I think he was a very kind man and will miss seeing him daily. He use to laugh alot with our IT folks and at their stupid jokes. Tee Hee Hee. :-) I'm really sorry that he's gone and God bless to him and his family.

“ To the Family: My sincere prayers are with each of you in your loss. Roger will be missed. I known him for approximately 6 years as a co-worker working in Information Technology. Know that his gentle spirit has moved on to higher heights. He's smiling down on each of others wanting all to be strong in a time such as this. Continue in praising God from whom all blessings flow for it was Roger's time.

“ I was very sorry to hear of Roger's passing. Roger was a very smart, sweet and kind man. My fondest memories of Roger are when he solved a problem with my computer that no one else could solve and he spent 1 1/2 hours doing so with a positive and patient attitude. My other fond memory is when he tried to quit smoking and took up candy canes instead. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Roger was a great friend with insights into many things. He worked hard, but always helped others when needed. I'll miss his Monday morning "fuss" about people forgetting their passwords over the weekend

“ Mrs. Wilkerson,

I went to high school with Roger, Ken Howie and Cary Anderson ; we were all pretty close.

I just saw the announcement in the Atlanta paper.

I don't know what to say.

Roger was my friend, I didn't get to see him much the last number of years but I will always remember him as my friend.

I'm so sorry to hear this.

“ Being one of Roger's neighbors, I knew he was a private person and kept to himself. I had very little contact with him, but whenever we talked he was very receptive. You could always tell what time of day it was with his departure to work and with his return - perfect cycle.
