

Roy Lamar Staines Obituary

December 31, 1957 - June 15, 2012

Roy Lamar Staines 54, of Augusta, GA formerly of Albany, GA died at home in his sleep Friday, June 15, 2012. A Memorial service will be held Saturday, June 30, 2012 at 3:00 pm at Avalon United Methodist Church. Rev. Dennis Lanning will officiate. The family will receive friends after the service. In keeping with Lamar's wishes his body has been cremated.

Lamar was a native of Albany, a 1977 graduate of Albany High School. He was raised attending Palmyra Road United Methodist Church. He served a 3 year tour with the US Navy. After his naval service he moved his family to Tybee Island, GA where he enjoyed the beach and ocean, later moving to Savannah for several years. During this time he attended Savannah State University for two years, later relocating to Augusta.

He was an Industrial Welder, building underground storage tanks until his retirement due to a disability. He then started volunteering at the Veteran's Hospital 's Greenhouse in Augusta, working as a Nurseryman. He came to love working with and growing live plants. He was always willing to share the plants he raised at home with his friends and neighbors. He grew up loving animals, particular his many dogs.

Lamar is survived by his parents Roy and Dot Staines of Lee County, GA, his daughter Brandy Staines Wall, her husband Joe and a granddaughter Claire Wall all of Savannah, GA. his sister Delora Staines Rogers of Lynn Haven, FL and several nieces and one nephew.

A family service will be held at a later date to scatter his ashes along the South Shore of Tybee Island and the Atlantic Ocean, which was his desire.

In lieu of flowers the family request those that desire, to make memorials to:

Norwood

VA Medical Center, ATTN: Greenhouse, I Freedom Way (119U), Augusta, GA 30904. Lee County Animal Shelter, 101 Mosey Dell Rd. Leesburg, GA 31763

or

Avalon United Methodist Church 3018 Gillionville Rd. Albany, GA 31707.

“ Roy, Dot, & Delora,

I am very saddened by this news. Lamar and I had a special relationship, especially once we ended up in the same High School. We were always at different schools until then, but once we were together, we were closer than most people knew. It's very sad that we get so entangled in our own lives, and in our own little world, that we lose track of old friends, and especially family. It is shameful that it takes something so tragic as this to snap us back into reality, and stir the hidden thoughts of home and family. Please know that my thoughts are with you all.

“ Delora & family,
I am so saddened to hear of your loss. Lamar was always a sweetheart and I so enjoyed "hanging out" with him. I pray that our loving God will hold you & and your family in his arms and give you comfort & peace during this time. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ So sorry to hear of Lamar's passing. I remember him from Albany High. He was always so sweet. It is nice to read about him and all that he was involved with during his life. I never realized what a big heart he had - Lamar will be missed very much in many places.

“ Dear Dot & Roy, May our loving heavenly Father Hold you in his arms at this most difficult of times. I cannot imagine what it is like for you, but one thing I know is that with God's help you will get through this. Love & prayers, Betty Singletaryn5

“ I'll always remember Lamar as the fiesty kid down the street who was friends with my brother, John. I remember most the fist fights those two got into regularly! One of the best was in the bed of my father's old '56 Ford pickup. Sam Shillcutt and I marvelled at how nearly every punch thrown landed, with neither guy flinching, but aiming the next punch. My father whipped me for not breaking it up, even after John took a second out to see if I was going to stop it. It was too good, even after the old man gave me mine!
I'm always saddened to hear of the passing of any of the old "Second Ave." group. Ma Bowen is 92 and in a nursing home in Columbus, GA and John is in and out of jail. I'm Ma's guardian and sold the house a couple of years ago. I do visit Bill Dorough every so often, but that's all that's left in Albany. I wish ya'll the best. Tom Bowen

“ To the family of Lamar, I send my heartfelt condolences and many prayers for you all. Although Lamar did not graduate with the Class of 76, he was still very much a part of us!! We had many good times during high school and had lost touch over the years. God Bless and keep him and comfort you all, left behind. He will be sorely missed.
