“ So sorry to hear the news of Mr. and Mrs. Young. The Bible says we'll know each other by our fruits, and though I never got to meet either of them, I know how wonderful and great parents and people they were by having the privilege of knowing and spending time with their sons. They are both in a very better place right now, and someday I will be very happy to meet them. God bless, and all the best to the Young family.

“ may the God of all comfort, comfort you during this time for you and you family. allow the love that you and your loved one cushion the pain that you all must be feeling during this time. rely on one another to be there to strenghted you and dont forget the power that is found in the Bible and i am sure that mr. young believed in. Remember there is much comfort especially at isaiah 33:24, john 5:28,29 and revelation 21:4,5. please read them and respond by email to let me know what you think about them. They were a real source of comfort for me when my mother died. Belinda Williams
